

DESTINATION UNKNOWN

Destination Unknown is a team competition where the team has to find the Unknown destination as fast as possible. This activity is perfect for international groups who wants to see and experience Stockholm. The participants can be lead to interesting places and landmarks. The finish line (Unknown Destination) can be any place the customer likes. Each team receives a folder containing a map and pictures of well-known places. The team has to visit all the checkpoints on the map and the places on the pictures. At those locations they will find questions and the correct answer will take them one step closer to the destination. When they have taken all the checkpoints they will have all the information regarding where to take their team. First team to the Unknown Destination wins.
