

PAPARAZZI

A photo contest where you will have a limited time to photograph as many things as possible. Using a map and pictures you will find places where the team must be photographed in various situations. Of course there are real paparazzi missions too, as to surreptitiously take pictures of another team in the performance of their duties. We begin by dividing the group into teams of four to five people each and explaining the underlying assumptions. You will then have 40 minutes at your disposal for shooting pictures before you have to be back and submit your cameras. We accomplish the screening together to see which team has been the most creative and thus received the most points. The winners will be rewarded with gold medals.
